THE GOOD STUFF

We only serve what we're happy to eat and drink ourselves, and for 15 years we have sought out the very best suppliers.

All our meat is British, of the highest quality from Aubrey Allen, and this eighty year-old Warwickshire butcher supplies many of Britain's finest restaurants as well as holding HM The Queen's Royal Warrant. Our steaks are from Britain's finest (increasingly rare) beef herds, 28 day dry-aged for stupendous flavour. Our chicken is free-range, as are our eggs, pork and ice-cream, and our lamb is Cornish. We serve the best of British where possible, even though it costs us more, and we follow the ever-changing advice on sustainability.

We focus on seasonality and our menus change four times a year; meaning we buy the best stuff at the best price. Our kitchen teams are passionate, proper chefs, cooking dishes from scratch, celebrating our vibrant British culture.

Drinks are chosen by real enthusiasts, and you'll find a great selection of spirits and softs on our bars and in our fridges. Our wine list is packed with a great range of top-quality and interesting wines, allowing you to choose something for your mood, or food.

CELEBRATIONS, PARTIES & MEETINGS

Whatever your occasion, our dedicated team will make sure your event goes just as planned. Sumptuous dinner parties between 10-65, extravagant birthday parties for 80, or a bash in the garden, our various spaces offer what you need.
